New translation of the Lectionary

The reading we have at Mass will be changing. The choice of texts is remaining the same but the translation is changing. The whole English speaking world, with a few exceptions, will, as a result, have the same translation. The Missal texts - prayers for the Mass which were changed over a decade ago will remain the same. This all happens from the first Sunday of Advent - 1st December 2024
