Peace

*The peace of Christ which we celebrate today is both a gift and an invitation.
We prepare ourselves to be filled, so that we can go out and share.*

First Reading

The prophet Daniel reminds us that God is always calling us to better things and a new life and joy.

Second Reading

The Cross will always be at the centre of our Christian faith.

Gospel

Jesus sends out his disciples to bring peace and healing.

Prayer for peace

Lord we ask for peace in all the nations throughout the world. We pray that hatred may turn to understanding, anger to compassion and horror to hope.

Lourdes

Memorial Feasts during the week

Wednesday - ferial feast of St Augustine Zhao Rong - a Chinese priest and 119 companions were martyred for their faith. The feast honours their steadfastness in the face of persecution in China and calls us to reflect on the sacrifices made in all times and places for believing and holding fast to the Gospel.

Friday 11th July St Benedict - Patron of Europe. Born in Umbria, he led a life of solitude and gathering disciples around him went on to Monte Casino where he founded a hilltop monastery in 529 that continues to the present day. Combining work and prayer he wrote a balanced and moderate rule which combines work and prayer which was widely influential and led to him being called the Father of Monasticism in the West.
